The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 19, to Tuesday April 22, 1755.

AT the Court at St. James's the 27th Day of March, 1755.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Eleventh Day of this Inſtant March, to promiſe and declare, (amongſt other Things) that the Bounties of three Pounds for every Able Seaman, of Forty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, and of Twenty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, ſhould be paid to every ſuch Seaman and Landman reſpectively, who ſhould, on or before the Thirty-firſt Day of this Inſtant, voluntarily Enter themſelves to ſerve in His Majeſty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds ſhould be alſo paid to any Perſon who ſhould, on or before the ſaid Thirty-firſt Day of this Inſtant, diſcover any Seaman, or Seamen, who ſhould conceal themſelves, ſo that ſuch Seaman or Seamen ſhould be taken for His Majeſty's ſaid Service—And whereas the Time thereby limited for paying the ſaid Bounties and Rewards is now near expiring; and it being judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, that the ſame ſhould be continued for ſome longer Time: His Majeſty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore Order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, That the Time limited by the ſaid Proclamation for Payment of the ſaid Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the ſaid Thirty-firſt Day of this Inſtant March, to the Thirtieth Day of April next, incluſive—Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice and govern themſelves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

Leghorn, March 30. Yeſterday M. Standardy, their Imperial Majeſties late Conſul at Algiers, arrived here from Port Mahon in an Engliſh Ship, on board of which he embarked at Algiers on the 4th Inſtant, ſoon after that Regency had taken the Reſolution to declare War againſt Tuſcany. We are informed by the Maſter of a Ship that arrived here a few Days ago from Ajaccio, that every Thing is in perfect Tranquility in Corſica, owing to the prudent Management of the Marqueſs Doria, the Republick of Genoa's Commiſſary General in that Iſland.

Madrid, March 31. Their Catholick Majeſties continue in perfect Health at their Palace of Buen-Retiro. They attended laſt Week at the uſual Devotions of the Seaſon, and laſt Night the Court-Diverſions were again opened, with the Performance of the Opera of Dido. This Day being the Queen of Portugal's Birth-Day, their Majeſties received the Compliments uſual on the Occaſion, and the Marquis de Tripucci, Mayor-domo-Mayor to the Queen-Dowager, and the Marquis de la Mina, Governor of Catalonia, had the Honour to be covered for the firſt Time, as Grandees of Spain. Count Azlor his Catholick Majeſty's late Miniſter Plenipotentiary at the Court of Vienna, arrived here ſome Days ago, and will ſoon ſet out for Cadiz, to take Poſſeſſion of that Government.

Copenhagen, April 4. On Wedneſday laſt, being the King's Birth-Day, the ſame was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence. On this Occaſion their Majeſties dined in Publick, the Foreign Miniſters and principal Nobility of both Sexes being ſeated at three other Tables; and at Night there was a Supper, conſiſting of 70 Diſhes, and afterwards a Ball, which was opened by the Queen and the Prince Royal, and laſted till Break of Day. The Houſhold of the Prince Royal is compleatly formed, and M. Berckentin is appointed Grand-Maſter thereof. On the 28th paſt, the Ice upon the Sound began to break, and the Wind having continued ever ſince at South West, the Paſſage thereof is now become free, but the Great Belt is ſtill covered with Ice. The Time is not yet fixed for their Majeſties Departure for Frederichſbourg, where they propoſe to ſpend Part of the Summer, but 'tis thought it will ſhortly take Place.

Ulm, April 7. As there were ſome Papers of Conſequence in the Mail that was ſent from Schaffhouſen to Swiſſerland on the 27th paſt, which was loſt in paſſing a River near this City, by the Courier's miſſing the Bridge that was then covered with Water, the greateſt Pains imaginable have been taken to recover it, but all their Labour has hitherto proved unſucceſsful; and 'tis feared the Rapidity of the Stream at that Time carried it into the Danube, into which the River empties itſelf not far from the ſaid Bridge

Dreſden, April 8. On Tueſday laſt the King, accompanied by the Princes Xavier and Charles, and ſeveral of the principal Lords of the Court, went a hunting of Moor Game for the firſt Time this Seaſon, and lay that Night at Okrille. The three following Days his Majeſty followed the ſame Diverſion, which is to continue all this Month if the Weather proves favourable.

Frankfort, April 9. The Elector of Cologn, who arrived here on Monday laſt, was ſaluted at his Entrance into this City by a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon upon our Ramparts. His Serene Highneſs left Mergentheim laſt Saturday Morning, and arrived the ſame Day at Wertheim, where he embarked on board his Yatch, in order to go by Water to Bonn, but the Wind coming contrary, obliged him to land near Aſchaffenbourg, from whence he came hither, and this Morning he continued his Journey to Bonn by Land.

Bremen, April 9. On Sunday laſt, about three in the Afternoon, we had a moſt violent Storm of Rain and Thunder, the Lightning fell on the Tower of the Church of St. Agaric, which was ſoon after in Flames, but proper Aſſiſtance coming, it was ſoon extinguiſhed, and the Damage the Church received was not very conſiderable. Two Perſons had the Misfortune to loſe their Lives on this Occaſion by the falling down of ſome large Stones.

Altena, April 10. We hear from Holſtein, that M. Thomſtorff, Colonel of the Regiment of Horſe of Jutland, died a few Days ago at Itzehoe, in the 61ſt Year of his Age.

General Poſt-Office, April 22, 1755.

Whereas the Poſt-Boy, carrying the Derby Mail, that was diſpatched from this Office on Saturday the 19th Inſtant, was attack'd between Market Harborough and Kibworth, on Sunday Night the 20th Inſtant, about Eleven o'Clock, by two Men on Foot, who ſeized on his Horſe's Bridle, and led him to an Hedge about one hundred Yards diſtant from the Road, where they took off, and rifled the Mail, and took out and carried off the following Bags, viz.

| Leiceſter, | Nottingham, |
| Loughborough, | Derby and Aſhbourn. |

The Boy ſaith, one of the Robbers was a middle-ſized thin Man, and the other a fat jolly tall Man: The middle ſized Man had on a light colour'd Coat, and wore his own Hair, which was black, and Part of it platted and pulled over his Face, and his Hat ſlouched before, and was ſeemingly a genteel Man. The fat jolly tall Man had on a grey Wigg and Snuff colour'd Coat, and his Hat ſlouched before. After the Robbery they immediately mounted their Horſes, which were tied to the abovementioned Hedge, and rode with full Speed towards Harborough. The Boy adds, that one of the Horſes was of a grey Colour, and the other a darkiſh Colour.

This is therefore to give Notice, that whoſoever ſhall apprehend and convict, or cauſe to be apprehended and convicted, both or either of them who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending Highwaymen, or if any Perſon or Perſons, whether Accomplice, or knowing of this Robbery, ſhall make Diſcovery whereby either or both of the Perſons, who committed the ſame, may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſuch Diſcoverer or Diſcoverers will, upon Conviction of either or both of the ſaid Robbers, be entitled to the ſame Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have His Majeſty's moſt Gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Poſt Maſter General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.
